

Champagne, Sancerre & Burgundy

A guided Tour and Tasting

the modest merchant makes wine more accessible, digestible and fun.

Whether you like, love or live wine, the modest merchant breaks down the barriers of pretence and knowledge surrounding the world of wine, so with a little learning and a bit of fun you'll really be able to get the most out of your every wine experience.

Event: Discovering, tasting and sourcing Champagne, Sancerre & Burgundy
Location: Champagne, Sancerre and Burgundy
Number: 2 people + the mm
Timing: Friday 12.00 – Sunday 14.00 T.B.C.
Cost: Fee c. £500 + transport costs (van hire, petrol, road tolls & accommodation)
Contact: yourname@hotmail.com

Proposal: With either the goal of sourcing wines for a large event or wedding, or solely to really experience the vineyards, producers and wines of three of France's most prestigious regions, over a long weekend the mm will conduct a guided tour and tasting through a number of regions, wine towns and producers tasting, teaching, talking and buying great wines with the memories to match.

Reims (A.M.) – Champagne (P.M.) – Sancerre (EVE)

Friday Guests fly to Reims, driven by the mm at midday to Champagne for lunch along with a two Champagne tastings. They drive to Sancerre for the night.

Sancerre (A.M.) – Beaune (P.M.)

Saturday In the morning after two tastings in Sancerre, a tour of the vineyards and then lunch we will make the short drive east to Northern Burgundy for an early evening tasting, dinner and the night in Burgundy.

Beaune (A.M.) – Dijon (2 p.m.)

Sunday A final tasting is had in the morning at which point the mm drives back from Dijon by lunchtime and the guests fly back (via a stop to the must-see Maille mustard factory).

Please note, the above is only an example itinerary. The details of the route can be tailored to a much finer degree depending on budget, village and wine preference and time. For further details and a more accurate cost proposal please contact Alex on 07865 079 876.
